MISS BYRNES 4-H CLUB

Today we started out with two songs and a game. Secretary Vicky Reed read the minutes form the last meeting.

Mr. Sweet showed us a film on the County Dog Show and told us what we would have to do in the Show.

We played a game in which four questions were asked, the answers were put into four square blocks. The questions were: (1) What did we like most about 4-H this year? (2) What we like the least about 4-H this year? (3) What can we do for 4-H that we haven't done? (4) Would you join 4-H next year?

After that Mr. Sweet told us more about the Dog Show.

President Cindy Roach adjourned the meeting.

Raiders Nip Jefferson-Forest 5-4

The Appomattox Raiders came from a 4-0 deficit and tied the score in the last two regular innings and then a suicide squeeze play in the eighth inning gave them a 5-4 win over Jefferson-Forest last Monday in a Seminole District baseball game played at Appomattox. The win makes Appomattox 4-7 for this season.

Jefferson-Forest scored four runs in the top of the sixth,but Appomattox got two in the bottom of the inning to cut it to 4-2. They got two more in the bottom of the seventh to tie it up at 4-4. In the eighth, Pat Quinn led off with a double and stole third, two walks loaded the bases and Mark Eggleston laid down a bunt that had Quinn running on the pitch to score the winning run.

The Raiders had only three hits and Jefferson-Forest had six, but five Jefferson-Forest errors aided the Raiders.

Lawson Ford Runner-Up In District 12 Inch

Lawson Ford came in as runner-up in the District 12-Inch Tournament last week end in Lynchburg in the double elimination contest. They won four and lost their second game in the finals against Warren's Restaurant.

In Friday's night game, Lawson Ford edged C & B Lift Truck, 11-10, and in Saturday's action they were beaten by Warren's Resturant 6-4 and had to move into the loser's bracket and started playing back-to-back games, Lawson beat Pepsi Cola 20-11, beat Altavista 23-9 in the fourth game and beat Hurt Minute Market 9-5 to go into the finals in the fifth game. They then lost 9-6 in the finals to Warren's.

In the 13-11 win over C & B Lift Truck, Lawson Ford scored four runs in the sixth to break a 9-9 tie for a 13-9 lead and then held C & B to two runs in the seventh. Buddy Wilcox had a three run homer in the sixth inning for the big hit. Doug Mitchell hit a two run homer in the first. Pete Lampman was perfect at the plate with four for four. Earl Martin had three hits and Mitchell, Wilcox, Gerald Burley, Charles Jamerson and Donnie Clements each had two.

In the 23-9 win over Altavista, Pete Lampman continued his torrid hitting by going five for five at the plate. Gerald Burley and Eddie Gunter each added four hits, while Earl Martin, Ray Tweedy and Mike Mallow each banged out three apiece. Bruce Daniel and Donnie Clements each had two hits. Martin runs for Lawson Ford and Martin, Tweedy and Daniel drove in four runs each, while Clements and Burley drove in three each.

Timely hitting and scoring in all but one inning got Lawson Ford into the finals as they beat Hurt Minute Market 9-5 in the fifth game. Gerald Burley led the attack with three hits and four runs batted in, one hit being a home run. Earl Martin, Ray Tweedy, Pete Lampman, Charles Jamerson and Mike Mallow each connected for two hits. Martin also hit a home run and Clements drove in two runs.

A big first inning in which Warren's scored five runs to lead 5-2 and then added three more in the second for an 8-2 lead was enough for them to win the championship game 9-6 as they held off a seventh inning rally by Lawson. Earl Martin led the attack with three hits and Ray Tweedy and Mike Mallow had two each. Billy Gray, Richard Daniels and Pete Harris, each got two hits for Warren's as each of their players got at least one hit.

In the six games Pete Lampman and Earl Martin each got 17 hits, Lampman played only five games. Gerald Burley got 14 hits, Ray Tweedy and Mike Mallow 11 each and Tweedy played only five games. Martin hit three home runs and Burley two in the six games. In the runs batted in, Earl Martin drove in 14 and Gerald Burley 12 to lead them in the six games while Donnie Clements and Buddy Wilcox had nine and seven each.

In the six games Lawson Ford banged out 106 hits and scored 75 runs and opponents got 57 runs and 92 hits.

attack for Lawson's with three hits and Earl Martin, Ray Tweedy and Mike Mallow each had two hits.

Lawson's then met Pepsi in a real slugging battle as they won 20-17. A 11 run fourth inning, resulting from 14 hits gave them a good lead, but a 10 run rally in the same inning saw Pepsi bounce right back to keep it tight at 15-13 after four innings, and Lawson Ford got four in the seventh to keep the edge. Earl Martin and Gerald Burley led the attack as both of them had four hits, scored three runs and drove in five runs apiece and a home run each. Pete Lampman, Charles Jamerson and Donnie Clements each banged out three hits and Ray Tweedy, Bobby Stanley and Mike Mallow each added two in the 25 hit attack that saw all of Lawson's get a hit.

In the fourth game, Lawson continued to use their hot bats as they banged out 28 hits in 23-3 win over Altavista, Pete Lampman continued his torrid hitting by going five for five at the plate, Gerald Burley and Eddie Gunter each added four hits, while Earl Martin, Ray Tweedy and Mike Mallow each banged out three apiece. Bruce Daniel and Donnie Clements each had two hits. Martin runs for Lawson Ford and Martin, Tweedy and Daniel drove in four runs each, while Clements and Burley drove in three each.
